

As a citizen of the United States, I have the following Responsibilities:

1. Gratitude

I am responsible for expressing appreciation for the extraordinary freedom I enjoy.

2. Self-Reliance

I am responsible for taking care of myself and my family.

3. Citizenship

I am responsible for learning and understanding the nature of free government and the principles and practices of liberty.

4. Duty

I am responsible for staying alert, for resisting and vigorously defending breaches in freedom's foundation.

5. Service

I am responsible for providing more value if I desire more rewards in life.

6. Community

I am responsible for investing my time, talent, and resources in my local community.

7. Healthcare

I am responsible for taking care of my own health, vitality, and wellness.

8. Personal Economy

I am responsible for learning and practicing sound money-management principles.

9. Family

I am responsible for raising independent, self-reliant, and virtuous children who become productive citizens.

10. Attitude

I am responsible for asking only for opportunity.

11. Allegiance

I am responsible for mastering the English language and placing love of country above my ethnicity and culture of origin.

12. Maturity

I am responsible for owning the consequences of my choices.

13. Posterity

I am responsible for passing the torch of liberty and individual freedom to future generations.

To Understand the Principles Behind the Responsibilities,
Read THE WAR ON SUCCESS Now Available at amazon.com

